Agricultural Meteorology is the step change towards a climate smart agriculture. The school aims to build up knowledge about the use of integrated tools and advanced technologies for a sustainable management of agroecosystems.